

Community Blog #5 Service Provider Working Group Meeting November 19, 2020

The Richmond Department would like to thank all community partners who attended the November 19th Service Provider Working Group meeting! In total, over 35 community partners participated.

Topics discussed at the Service Provider Working Group meeting included:

- Community Needs Assessment updates, findings, and recommendations
- Strategic Investment Plan breakout sessions to discuss emerging priorities, geographic area priorities, and population priorities

In addition to the Service Provider Working Group, Department staff will be creating a follow-up survey for service providers to provide their input on the Strategic Investment Plan.
